Rent-A-Chair, Space Hire, Commission & Mentorship Opportunities

Commission Based Earning

Crown Collective offers flexible earning pathways to suit different stylists' goals and lifestyles - from independent chair hire to commission-based employment.

Structure	Rate	Details
Product Sales Commission	5%	Stylists receive 5 % of retail product sales generated through their clients or referrals.
Commission-Based Hairdressing	30 – 40%	Suitable for stylists who prefer not to rent a chair. Commission is calculated on weekly service totals, varying by skill level and experience.
Hybrid Options	Available on request	Combination of part-rent / part-commission tailored to workload and client base - ideal for stylists transitioning to full independence.

Inclusions: Access to salon amenities, marketing support, and brand exposure via Crown Collective's digital platforms.

Note: Commission structures apply under employment agreements and differ from rent-a-chair contractor terms.

Mentorship & Support Program (+GST)

Designed by Josie Ajak, this program provides hands-on guidance in braids, dreadlocks & human-hair extensions - focusing on skill expansion, business growth & client retention.

Add-On-Rate	Eligibility	Overview
$138.46 + GST per week	Available to: 1 Stylists on an ongoing rent-a-chair contract 2 Students currently enrolled in a Crown Collective / Josie Ajak training course	One-on-one coaching, business systems guidance, marketing support, and technique refinement sessions.

Employment & Pathway Opportunities

Crown Collective also offers:

- Flexible Employment Pathways for established braiders & hairstylists seeking steady, flexible work that complements their other creative projects.
- Growth Opportunities for stylists wanting to learn or upskill in braids, dreadlocks, or human hair extensions. Stylists must have their own clientele and an existing foundation in hair styling.
- Mentorship + Support add-on is encouraged for those pursuing professional growth under Josie Ajak's guidance.
- A collaborative, inclusive environment for stylists and educators who want to work independently while being part of a collective that supports mastery, creativity & community.
